MIKE NAVARRE BOROUGH MAYOR

MEMORANDUM

TO: Gary Knopp, Assembly President
Members, Kenai Peninsula Borough Assembly

THRU: Mike Navarre, Mayor MN
Craig Chapman, Director of Finance C Chapman

FROM: Max Best, Director of Planning MB

DATE: June 27, 2012

SUBJECT: Ordinance 2012-26, repealing the June 30, 2012 expiration date in ordinance 2011-19-66

The administration requests the following changes to this ordinance located at page 128 of the packet. These changes are requested to clarify that most of the Spruce Bark Beetle (SBB) program is expected to end this Fall, but funds will remain primarily for a mapping project to be completed in about 18 months. Additionally, the retroactive effective date is requested to enable the administration to charge the salaries to the same account for the rest of this portion of the program.

- Amend the fourth Whereas and add a fifth Whereas as follows:

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that a majority of the remaining projects will be completed by September 1, 2012; and

WHEREAS, it is anticipated that the SBB program will continue for approximately 18 months primarily for mapping purposes; and

- Amend the last Whereas as follows:

WHEREAS, to allow for appropriate accounting of salaries [ENSURE CONTINUOUS OPERATIONS] this ordinance should be effective retroactively on June 30, 2012;
