KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH
RESOLUTION 92-120

A RESOLUTION URGING THE APPORTIONMENT OF THE STATE
IN SUCH A WAY THAT ALLOWS PORTIONS OF THE KENAI PENINSULA
BOROUGH TO REMAIN INTACT

WHEREAS, the reapportionment of the Alaska Legislature for the 1992 General Election was determined by a judge after lawsuit was filed against the Governor's plan; and

WHEREAS, the Reapportionment Board will again be meeting to revise the plan used in the 1992 General Election; and

WHEREAS, the Kenai Peninsula Borough has been divided for the last ten years into districts where some of the Representatives and Senators are not residents of the area; and

WHEREAS, it has been felt for a number of years that the Kenai Peninsula Borough should remain as intact as possible with reapportionment; and

WHEREAS, the plan originally submitted to the Governor allowed much of the borough to remain "together"; and

WHEREAS, Port Graham and Nanwalek have past and present historical ties to the Kenai Peninsula Borough that they do not have with the Kodiak Island Borough; and

WHEREAS, those ties should be allowed to continue with the new apportionment; and

WHEREAS, Hope historically has had its ties with the Seward/Cooper Landing/Moose Pass area for over 20 years; and

WHEREAS; the Hope community and the borough feel Hope should remain in that district and ties should remain intact and Hope should not become disassociated;

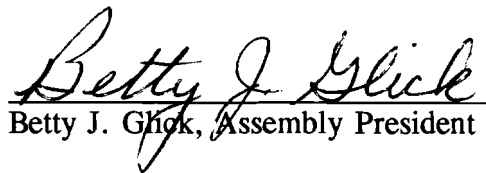

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ASSEMBLY:

SECTION 1. That the Reapportionment Board is urged to replace Port Graham and Nanwalek in a Kenai Peninsula House District.

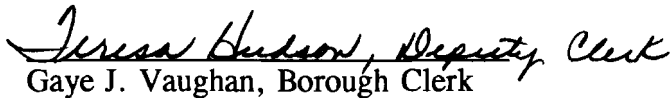

SECTION 2. That the Board is also urged to move Hope to a part of the Seward/Cooper Landing/Moose Pass area under the new apportionment plan.

SECTION 3. That this resolution takes effect upon adoption.

ADOPTED BY THE KENAI PENINSULA BOROUGH ASSEMBLY THIS 17th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1992.
